THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

On 8 July 1950 a meeting was held in the Rear-Echelon Command in Belgrade.
At that time, the following questions were discussed:

25X1

- a. The lack of ammunition of different types and of various models of arms; the supplying of ammunition to the mobile units, in case of war.
- b. The poor condition of the Medical Corps; almost 50 percent of the vehicles which were to be ready by spring 1950, are not yet finished and are missing.
- c. Communications equipment such as field telephones, radio stations et cetera; is very scarce.
- d. The question of cooperation in time of war between the air force, the armored units, and the army on the front line as well as in the rear.
- e. The strengthening of precautions and control against all suspect persons, especially those belonging to the Cominform circles.
- f. The strengthening and the acceleration of the PAZ (anti-aircraft protection) courses.
